Dear Mr. MacLeod:

I have no other
information concerning
the communication from
Mr. Mason than that in his letter which I sent you this morning. Your assumption is probably correct as to his having sent them by some friend

for your examination.

I will send your
note to Mr. Mason.

Yours sincerely,

To the Art Committee of
"The Corcoran Gallery,
Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen:

picture named "La Marcutterie" (a marshy place) which was hung on the line in the French Salon of 1882, in the place of honor in a room with sixty pictures marked has concours, and which was equally well hung in the Triennial International Exhibition in Munich this summer, is expected in N. Y.

in a few days. I would like to exhibit it in Washington as it is the work of my son Roger Donoho, a Washingtonian who has been studying in ^{at} France for the last four years.

The picture, as reported by correspondents in Munich, attracted great attention in Munich, where it was exhibited together with the pictures of our best artists, indeed some correspondents wrote that it was the landscape among those sent by Americans that received the greatest praise.

Hoping that your honorable body will allow the picture to be exhibited in your gallery,

I will feel greatly obliged if you will answer this note at your earliest convenience.

Please inform me if you will allow the picture to remain in your gallery six months, as it will be inconvenient for me to move it before that time.

Very respectfully,
Julia R. Donoho.

Dear Sir, I would respectfully ask
your opinion of the value of a genuine
porcelain picture
from the celebrated
porcelain Manufactory
at Sevres France.
The picture I have
in my mind, is
a scene in the reign of Francis I. It is of oval shape and is at least twelve

1 1/2 inches from center
to circumference
It is of elegant
design, and of the finest workmanship
I desire to know
the probable
market value of such work
Any information
you may see
proper to impart
will be thankfully
received

Respectfully

I shipped by the
B. & O. R.R. as freight the marble bust of Mr Carver, which I hope will reach its destination safely - It was directed to Mr Wm MacLeod

Carver
Carver Gallery of Art
Washington D.C.

I have tried to make it - as good as I possibly could - I finished it - myself, with chisel only - and the surface is not as smooth as some marble work, it was because I intended it - to be 20 - I left the drapery from the work which I purposed -

~~Amos~~

The cause of the delay was want of time to do it - any sooner - I had to steal odd hours and days ~~and it~~ from other work.

Trusting that the gentlemen for whom I did the work will pardon the long delay and that they will find the ^{result} satisfactory
I am

Very Truly Yours

Please refer to them my shipment and contents of their
